

Role Descriptor:

Board Member (Member Communities)

Primary Responsibilities

Board Members are responsible for ensuring that their board is achieving its purpose, which is delegated to it by trustees within the governance framework.

Board Members actively participate in decision-making processes and play a major role in the delivery of the board's delegated responsibilities.

Board Members work in partnership with Royal Society of Chemistry staff to ensure that their decisions are acted upon successfully and the board's business is managed effectively.

Board Members should demonstrate integrity, adopting values and creating a culture that helps advance the charitable object of the Royal Society of Chemistry.

Duties and wider responsibilities

In connection to the board's purpose, Board Members are expected to:

- fulfil and develop the responsibilities described with Tm(I 2)4(i)23 (ed wy)12 (ed w)4(i)t)12 ((hTm

ff and other stakeholders.

Person specification

The following characteristics, knowledge and experience (or commitment to gain them) are advantageous to the role of Board Member:

- a member (any category) of the Royal Society of Chemistry
- dedication to the general advancement of chemical science and its application

- specific interest and expertise in relation to the remit of the Board
- experience of committee work
- developed interpersonal and communication skills
- sufficient time and commitment to fulfil the role
-